

Mokelumne-Amador-Calaveras Integrated Regional Water Management Plan

Table of Contents

Chapter 1	MAC Region
1.1	Regional Geography
1.1.1	Regional Boundary
1.1.2	Neighboring and Overlapping Regions
1.1.3	Internal Water-Related Boundaries
1.1.4	Internal Institutional Boundaries
1.1.5	Major Water-Related Infrastructure
1.1.6	Social and Cultural Makeup
1.1.7	Ecological and Environmental Resources
1.2	Water Resource Conditions
1.2.1	Water Supplies and Demands
1.2.2	Water Quality
1.3	Climate Change
1.4	Water Resource Issues and Major Conflicts
Chapter 2	Governance
2.1	UMRWA – Regional Water Management Group
2.2	Governance Structure
2.2.1	Regional Participants Committee
2.2.2	Board Advisory Committee
2.2.3	UMRWA Board of Directors
2.2.4	Public Participation
2.2.5	Benefits of Governance Structure
2.3	Stakeholder Involvement
2.4	Integration
2.5	Coordination with Other IRWM Regions and State/Federal Agencies
2.6	Plan Adoption and Future Updates
Chapter 3	Goals, Objectives and Strategies
3.1	Goals and Objectives
3.1.1	Process for Setting Goals and Objectives
3.1.2	Measuring Objectives
3.1.3	Prioritizing Objectives
3.2	Resource Management Strategies
3.2.1	Strategies Evaluated
3.2.2	Strategies Selected
Chapter 4	Implementing Projects and Programs
4.1	Project Review Process
4.1.1	Procedure for Submitting Projects and Programs

4.1.2 Procedure for Review and Selection of Projects/Programs

4.1.3 Prioritization of Projects and Programs

4.1.4 Project Integration

4.2 Coordination with Water and Land Use Agencies

4.3 Impact and Benefit Analysis

4.4 Financing Plan

4.5 Technical Analysis

Chapter 5 Plan Administration

5.1 Plan Performance and Monitoring

5.2 Data Management

References